CAMP DIRECTOR

Assistant Coach at the University of Maryland Lauri Kenis will be directing this popular GameBreaker Lacrosse Camps at Emory University.

In the 2009 season the program went a phenomenal 21-1, including a run to the NCAA Final Four and ACC Tournament and Regular Season championships. Kenis helped mentor five All-Americans, including IWLCA Midfielder of the Year and ACC Player of the Year Caitlyn McFadden. Head coach Cathy Reese also garnered ACC and IWLCA South Region Coach of the Year honors while Karri Ellen Johnson was named ACC Rookie of the Year after tallying one of the finest freshman campaigns in Maryland women's lacrosse history.

No stranger to an elite-level defense, Kenis was a two-time consensus first team All-American defender at Virginia and helped the Cavaliers rank in the top-ten nationally in scoring defense in each of her four seasons. With Kenis on the field, Virginia advanced to the NCAA finals twice and to the ACC finals twice. A four-year letter-winner, Kenis was a two-time all-conference honoree while earning NCAA and ACC All-Tournament accolades.

The Haverford, Pa. native ranks third all-time in Virginia history with 107 caused turnovers and started every game in her final two seasons in Charlottesville. She was a two-time member of the Virginia All-State team and ranked second on the team in ground balls and caused turnovers in her junior and senior seasons. Kenis was also a member of the US National Elite team from 2003-2005.
